1805 LEWIS & CLARK SESQUICENTENNIAL 1955

The Lewis and Clark expedition, westward bound, encamped here near the Three Forks of the Missouri for a few days in the latter part of July, 1805. The following year, Captain Clark and party came back July 13, 1806, on their way to explore the Yellowstone river.

Sacajawea, the Shoshone squaw who aided the Lewis and Clark expedition, was captured near here when a child, during a battle between her people and the Minnetarees.

In 1810 the Missouri Fur Co. built a trading post close by, but due to the hostility of the Blackfeet Indians was forced to abandon it that fall.
